IMPACT: State

Summary of Legislation: This bill abolishes the Bureau of Motor Vehicles Commission (BMVC). It transfers duties performed by the BMVC to the Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV) or to the Commissioner of the BMV. The bill repeals various provisions referring to the BMVC. It repeals the criminal penalties for violation of the duties of the office of Commissioner of Motor Vehicles. The bill repeals the criminal penalty to the BMV for various violations of record keeping and dissemination. (The introduced version of this bill was prepared by the Interim Study Committee on Bureau of Motor Vehicles Issues.)

Effective Date: January 1, 2002.

Explanation of State Expenditures: With the abolition of the BMVC, there will be some minor cost savings associated with the per diem and travel paid to Commission members. Over the last three years, Commission members received $50 per meeting plus travel reimbursement. This has amounted to approximately $700 per year, or about $140 per member per year. The fund affected is the State License Branch Fund which supports the BMVC.

Explanation of State Revenues: Revenue is not expected to be affected by the abolition of the BMVC.
